

JOB OFFER

Aquaponic plant production Manager

The cooperative company KONJI FARM aims to take actions according to permaculture basics. We support sustainable development friendly approach and systems. We want every human intervention to consider the existing natural ecosystems and to apply harmoniously with them while remaining efficient.

Assignment

Ensure plant production as part of an aquaponic system. The final purposes remain quality research and productivity increase.

Duties

- Define production goals.
- Set up both short-term, medium-term and long term production specifications .
- Test various greenhouse production settings in order to reach optimal production according to various crops.
- Manage inputs and stocks.
- Maintain production systems.
- Implement both prevention and treatment strategies for plant diseases.
- Work together with every other manager.
- Set up a specific database to improve production skills and take part in research and development.
- Deliver daily production reports.
- Seek and suggest options to improve production.

Educational background

Agronomist, management and strategy skills would be welcome

Education levels

Master's degree

Experience level

No less than 3 years

Working Time

Full time

Place of Work

Nkolnguét village (45 km away from Yaoundé, Cameroun)

Type of contract

Fixed term, possible evolution to permanent contract

Contract period

12 renewables months

Skills required

- Extensive knowledge in aquaponics and hydroponics
- Versatility, discipline, curiosity
- Ability to summarize, analyse and leadership skills
- Organisational and methodical skills
- Timeliness and professionalism
- Perfect knowledge of Microsoft Word and Excel
- Innovative mindset

Personal attributes

- Leadership and entrepreneurial mindset
- Sense of challenge and results
- Fieldworker
- Pragmatism
- Communication skills
- High level of commitment
- Attention to details
- Agriculture enthusiast